Thomas Nathaniel Ivan

GENERAL MANAGER

When Tommy Ivan took over the duties as General Manager of the Black Hawks 8 years ago, the club had hit the lowest depths ever experienced by a National Hockey League team.

They hadn't qualified for the play-offs during the preceding 10 years, had finished last seven times in that stretch and fifth in the six-team league the other three seasons.

Attendance at Chicago Stadium, which had at one time topped all other arenas in the N.H.L., had dwindled to four - five thousand per game.

Today, the Black Hawks are a new team. Ivan has revamped the Hawks set-up, built a "cradle to the cup" program calculated to make the Black Hawks a top contender indefinitely.

Mr. T., as he fondly is known by those close to him, was riding the crest of success at Detroit when co-owner, James D. Norris, got permission to approach Ivan to take over the managership of the Black Hawks. The Red Wings had just won the N.H.L. Championship for the sixth straight year, the Stanley Cup for the third time in Ivan's six years as coach. In contrast, the Hawks had just skidded to last place for the seventh time in 8 years.

The truth of the matter was that the Hawks farm system had been allowed to deteriorate to virtually nothing after a number of lush years that saw Chicago set the all-time record for attendance, in a single game and for the season.

Chicago today has a farm system that is second to none. They sponsor 11 clubs with approximately 150 players under contract or destined for future delivery to the Hawks when they turn professional.

The St. Catharines TeePees, Jrs., are the Hawks' No. 1 amateur sponsored club and already have graduated half a dozen players to the Hawks — Bobby Hull, Elmer Vasko, Pierre Pilote, Stan Mikita, Chico Maki and Wayne Hillman.

Ivan's job has been especially tough for he was a coach as well as general manager for a good part of the time. He hired the late Frank Eddolls to coach the first season, then the veteran, Dick Irvin, was stricken with a fatal illness and Ivan wound up as coach again for 2½ seasons before he enticed Rudy Pilous from St. Catharines.

Tommy still pursues his dual role as manager and keen student of the game. He tries to oversee every practice. Then he retires to his office and coach Pilous joins him and they go over the day's workout. He listens to Pilous' analysis of individual players and line changes, then offers his observations.

The background of Ivan's training shows more and more as Chicago climbs in the N.H.L. But so does the relentless drive of the quiet little fellow who, after his own playing career was ended by serious injury, decided to devote his whole life to the game.

Ivan started out coaching juveniles in Brantford, Ont., and his work with the kids made a hit with Jack Adams of Detroit who brought him into the Red Wing organization.

After a couple of years as a scout, Tommy joined the Canadian Army as an instructor in small arms and chemical warfare. When he came out of service he was appointed coach of the Omaha Knights in the now defunct U. S. Hockey League. Then followed a season as coach of the Indianapolis Caps in the American League, and in 1947, when Adams relinquished the Detroit reigns, Ivan took over as coach of the Wings. Ivan was born in Toronto, Ont., on January 31, 1911. He's married and his home is in Skokie, Ill.

Rudolph "Rudy" Pilous

COACH

Rudolph "Rudy" Pilous assumed the duties as coach of the Black Hawks on January 4, 1958, succeeding Tommy Ivan, who had the dual role of coach and general manager at the time.

Despite the mixed reception he received when he made his N.H.L. debut, Pilous has demonstrated that he deserves to be ranked in professional hockey's upper echelon. He's had the astute hand of Ivan to guide him, and Tommy has been around the pro game long enough to know all the answers and angles. Ivan, actually, became a coach to the coach and Pilous quickly found his feet, backed by the experience in amateur hockey with the St. Catharines TeePees.

Included among Pilous' accomplishments with the Teeps were four Ontario Hockey Association league titles and one Canadian junior championship. In 1955-56, Rudy was honored by the Hockey News as hockey executive of the year, becoming the only amateur official ever to win the award.

Perhaps the best indication of Pilous' success with the TeePees during the relatively short life is the impressive list of former players now performing among the select 150 who make up the N.H.L.

Included are Bobby Hull, Stan Mikita, Pierre Pilote, Elmer Vasko, Chico Maki, Wayne Hillman, Ab McDonald, to mention a few.

The Black Hawks were in last place when Pilous took over the reins. As a matter of fact, they had finished last in four previous seasons. While Pilous didn't accomplish any miracles in that first season, the Hawks managed to finish fifth. Then followed three straight third place finishes, topped off with winning the Stanley Cup and World's Championship in 1960-61.

Last season the Hawks again finished third only to lose the Stanley Cup to Toronto Maple Leafs in a gruelling six-game final.

There isn't much question but that a terrific job of leadership has been accomplished on the Hawks the past four and one-half seasons and a great deal of credit is due coach Pilous.

Thus, the result of this combined effort by Ivan and Pilous, plus the complete cooperation of James D. Norris is that Chicago sport fans have renewed their interest in the Black Hawks.

Like all Canadian lads, Pilous' ambition was to play hockey in the N.H.L. But, he got only as far as the old New York Rovers in the Rangers' farm system. On the advice of Frank Boucher, Rangers' coach, Rudy abandoned his plans for a big league career and took a coaching.

Pilous' first venture was at St. Catharines, Ont., in 1943. When the team failed Rudy took a job with Buffalo as scout and chief trouble-shooter in the Bison's farm system. In 1948 he was coach for Houston where he won the U.S. Hockey League title. In 1949 he coached San Diego and won the Pacific Coast Hockey crown. From San Diego he went back to St. Catharines.

The seventh son of German immigrants to Winnipeg, Man., Rudy was born in the suburb of Brooklands on August 11, 1914. He is married and has two daughters. His home is in St. Catharines, Ont., and in the off-season is assistant-director of public relations of the Ontario Jockey Club.

Nick "Doc" Garen

TRAINER

Nick "Doc" Garen has been looking after the physical welfare of the Black Hawks players for the past 17 seasons.

A native New Yorker, Nick joined the club back in 1945 after a two-year hitch as a medical corpsman in the U.S. Army.

Even at that time, Garen's qualifications for the job as an N.H.L. trainer were good. He took a 3-year course at the New York School of Massage and Physiotherapy and studied chiropractic before going into the service. His two years in the medical corps added immeasurably to his knowledge of anatomy and medicine. Then followed four semesters at the National Chiropractic College in Chicago, plus an extension course in psychology at Indiana University.

Nick is just one of many who feels that much of the average pro hockey player's physical troubles are directly connected with his mental outlook on this roughest of all sports.

John P. Gottselig

DIRECTOR
PUBLIC RELATIONS

John P. Gottselig joined the Black Hawks back in 1928 and has been a member ever since. He was a top-flight player with the Hawks for 16 years, Manager-coach for three seasons, and now is Publicity Director of the club.

Murray Lewis "Rocky" Balfour

RIGHT WING
Shoots right 5'9", 178 lbs.
Born: REGINA, SASK.
AUGUST 24, 1936
Last Amateur Club:
REGINA PATS JRS.
Home: REGINA, SASK.

Murray Balfour was purchased by the Black Hawks from the Montreal Canadiens at the start of the 1959-60 season.

The soft-smiling, stockily-built right winger hustled his way into stardom and has become an important cog on the "Million Dollar" line which has Red Hay at center and Bobby Hull at left wing.

This line had much to do with the Hawks' success the past three seasons. It was during the Stanley Cup playoffs in the spring of 1961 that Balfour suffered a broken arm, and while the Hawks managed to come through, Balfour's arm did not. Adversity stalked Murray during the summer months. The arm had to be re-broken and the arm re-set.

Although Balfour started out last season, the arm still bothered him and his troubles were compounded when he sustained a cut leg. It was decided then that both arm and leg would be treated simultaneously, and as a result Murray was sidelined for 20 games. Yet, he managed a respectable 15 goals along with 14 assists at the season's end.

Balfour played his junior hockey with Regina Pats, and Montreal scouts signed him to a pro contract in 1957-58, but shipped him to Montreal Royals for seasoning. Following the 1958-59 season which he spent with Rochester, the Hawks grabbed him.

In his rookie year with the Hawks, Balfour had the keenest shooting eye in the N.H.L., scoring 18 goals on only 83 shots. In 1960-61 he worked himself up to a 20-goal man, scoring 21 markers.

Murray is not the most polished of skaters, but his free-wheeling style gets the job done in a convincing fashion.

Balfour grew up out west, in Regina, Sask., where he was born on August 24, 1936. He stands 5'9" and weighs 178 lbs. He's single.

William John "Tex" Evans

Shoots left 6'1", 185 lbs.

Born: GARNANT, SOUTH WALES
APRIL 21, 1928

Last Amateur Club:
LETHBRIDGE MAPLE LEAFS SRS.
Home: CALGARY, ALTA.

William John "Tex" Evans, oft referred to as the "Quiet Man," is the only N.H.L. player performing today who hails from South Wales, and it is doubtful that any more players from there with his talent will ever arrive upon the scene.

Tex rates as one of the toughest defensemen in the game. He hands out bruising checks, and his physical stature, plus skills obtained as a heavyweight boxer, makes him an extremely respected opponent.

Evans, who has completed four full seasons with the Hawks, saw his first N.H.L. action in 1948-49 — a brief 3-game tryout with New York Rangers. Then followed some short stops at New Haven, Cincinnati, the Rangers again, Saskatoon and Victoria during a span of five years which was almost enough to discourage most anyone.

Finally, in 1955-56, the Rangers decided to keep him and the big Welshman toiled three full seasons before being drafted by the Hawks in the summer of 1958.

Evans, one of five brothers who tower over six feet, is the son of a Welsh coal miner, who was also a fine rugby player. The family migrated to western Canada when John was but a lad of six, and when he was 17, took a job in a coal mine in Drumheller, Alta., running a hoist.

A real rugged hockey player, Tex has missed only three games out of 490 regular N.H.L. contests.

Evans was born in Garnant, South Wales on April 21, 1928. He stands 6'1" and weighs 185 lbs. He's married and makes his home in Calgary, Alta.

Reginald Stephen "Reg" Fleming

Shoots left 5'10", 185 lbs.

Born: MONTREAL, QUE.
APRIL 21, 1936

Last Amateur Club:
CANADIENS JRS.
Home: MONTREAL, QUE.

Talk about all the big guns of the Black Hawks, but when they sit down to chat about a popular player the name that is right up there is that of Reg Fleming, the jack-of-all-trades of the Hawks.

Fiery Reg, a forward-defenseman-penalty-killer de luxe, doesn't grab headlines too often during the regular season for he doesn't see much action. But, come playoff time and he seems to come into his own. It is then that many players with far more natural ability could learn from rugged Reggie.

He overcomes an ordinary talent with hustle, and an awesome capacity for work. Above all he plays to win, yet holds no grudges.

Reggie's aggressiveness obviously is an inherited characteristic. His father, Alex Fleming, played guard for the Montreal Alouettes back in the 1930's. The elder Fleming, according to Toronto's Annis Stukus, one of Canada's outstanding football players, ruined a whole Toronto backfield one afternoon with his onslaughts, then to add insult to injury, joined them in a party after the game and needled them over their inability to cope with him.

The younger Fleming is just about as fiery a competitor as his father. A couple of years ago he took on three New York Rangers (Dean Prentice, Eddie Shack and Jack McCarton) in three separate fights and flattened each one. When the smoke had cleared away, Fleming had accumulated 3 major penalities, one minor, a misconduct and a game misconduct for a total of 37 minutes, a new N.H.L. record.

Fleming has curbed his fighting considerably and concentrates more on penalty killing.

Fleming was purchased from the Montreal Canadiens organization in the summer of 1960.

Reg was born in Montreal, Que., on April 4, 1936. He stands 5'10" and weighs 185 lbs. He's single. His hobbies are coin collecting, Hi-Fi records and golf.

Glenn Henry Hall

GOAL

Shoots left 5'11", 160 lbs.
Born: HUMBOLDT, SASK.
OCTOBER 3, 1931

Last Amateur Club:
WINDSOR SPITFIRES JRS.
Home: EDMONTON, ALTA.

Glen Henry Hall, or "Mr. Goalie" as Chicago fans call this youthful looking 31-year, rates as one of the all-time great goaltenders in the history of the N.H.L.

Hall, a quiet, unassuming young man with an enviable record, gathered in still more honors last season, in an already fabulous career.

Besides extending his N.H.L. consecutive games-played-record to an astounding 490 at the close of the '61-62 campaign, Hall wound up being nominated to the N.H.L. Second All-Star Team for the third time in his career. This matches the three times he was voted to the N.H.L. First All-Star Squad. Back in 1955-56, while in Detroit, Hall won the Calder Trophy, and also led the league in shutouts with 12.

Hall learned to stop rubber in the Detroit farm system. He started out with Indianapolis of the A.H.L. in 1951-52 and was called up to the Wings for 6 games in '52-53, then shipped to Edmonton of the Western League where he put in three seasons. He got another 2-game tryout with Detroit in 1954-55, and the following season took over the netminding duties from Terry Sawchuk who was traded to Boston Bruins.

The Hawks, seeking a top-flight goalie turned to Detroit and shelled out a bundle of cash and four players to get Hall, along with Ted Lindsay, prior to the start of the 1957-58 campaign.

Hall promptly repaid his new employers by being named on the N.H.L. First All-Star Team. The Chicago management recognizes the agile Hall as the key man in the team's surge to playoff contention the past four seasons.

Hall played his first hockey around Humboldt, Sask., where he was born on October 3, 1931. He migrated to Windsor, Ont., where he played two years of junior hockey for the Spitfires before going to Indianapolis.

Glenn stands 5'11" and weighs 160 lbs. He's married and makes his summer home in Edmonton, Alta.

William Charles "Red" Hay

Shoots left 6'3", 190 lbs.

Born: SASKATOON, SASK.
DECEMBER 9, 1935

Last Amateur Club:
COLORADO COLLEGE
Home: CALGARY, ALTA.

William "Red" Hay, one of the few American College grads to make the N.H.L., is considered one of the slickest stickhandlers and playmakers in the game today. The big pivotman on the Hawks' "Million Dollar" line has been probably the one most responsible for the record-tying 50-goals-in-a-season set by his linemate Bobby Hull last year. He's also the "quarterback" on the Hawks' power play, providing the leadership and spark that makes it tick.

Red, although Canadian born, starred for the Colorado University team, and refutes the experts' claims that a youth just can't spend four years in an American college an expect to meet N.H.L. standards.

The rangy redhead has done just that and in no small way. His first season with the Hawks saw him register 55 points and he was voted the Calder award (rookie of the year). In his sophomore season he collected 59 points and last year 63 total points.

Hay's amateur record with the Regina Pats won him a scholarship to Coorado U. Upon graduation Montreal signed him to a pro contract. However, he got lost among a lengthy list of impressive candidates at Canadiens training camp in 1958 and was loaned to Calgary, a Hawks farm team in W.H.L. He was so impressive with the Stampeders that Chicago shelled out $25,000 for him after the 1958-59 season.

Hay comes from an athletic family. His father, Charlie Hay, was an outstanding goalie, playing for Saskatchewan U. back in 1920. His mother, the former Florence "String" Miller, was a top Canadian track and field star. Earl Miller, Red's uncle, played for the Hawks from 1928 to 1931.

Red was born in Saskatoon, Sask., on December 9, 1935. He stands 6'3" and weighs 193 lbs. He's married, and makes his summer home in Calgary where he works as an engineer for a Canadian oil company.

Born: KIRKLAND LAKE, ONT.
NOVEMBER 13, 1938

Last Amateur Club:
ST. CATHARINES TEE PEES, JRS.

Wayne Hillman is just another of the many products of the St. Catharines TeePees Jrs., a Hawks farm team, to make his way up to the big time.

The youngest of three brothers in pro hockey, Wayne was expected to become a major league great when he left the TeePees to join the Buffalo Bisons of the A.H.L. for the 1959-60 season. Instead, he was used sparingly in his first two seasons and his play, at times, was disappointing. There were doubts expressed as to wether this was the same Hillman who set the Ontario Hockey Association on fire in 1957-58 and again in 1958-59. Some went so far as to blame Wayne's attitude for his shortcomings.

A stint with the Black Hawks during the 1960-61 Stanley Cup playoffs made Hillman realize the advantages gained by playing in the big league.

Then last fall Hillman got serious and became one of the more diligent workers at training camp with the full knowledge that his hockey future was at stake.

When the Hawks ran into a flock of injuries last season, they called on Wayne, and the rugged six-footer erased all doubts with his outstanding work. In fact his efforts in 15 games restored the organization's confidence in his future, and better things are expected from him in 1962-63.

Wayne was born in Kirkland, Ont., on November 13, 1938. He stands an even six feet and weighs 195 lbs. He's married.

Robert "Bobby" Hull, Hockey's Golden Boy, has certainly established himself an N.H.L. super-star after only five seasons in the big time. His dazzling speed and reckless abandon, along with an arsenal of fearsome weapons have earned him such titles as the Chicago Comet, Bullet Bob, The Golden Jet, etc.

The swashbuckling left winger climaxed a brilliant season by scoring 50 goals last year, thus equalling an N.H.L. record established by Rocket Richard (now retired) in 1944-45 and repeated by Bernie Geoffrion in 1960-61. The 50 goals, along with 34 assists, won Bobby the scoring title (Art Ross Trophy).

At one stretch Bobby scored at least one goal in 9 straight games to equal the N.H.L. record also held by Richard and Geoffrion.

The muscular sharpshooter is one of those truly unusual athletes who leap to the top of the sport after the briefest sort of apprenticeship.

After an outstanding career with the St. Catharines TeePees Jrs. team, and when only 18 years of age, he was signed to a pro contract by the Hawks.

Although he didn't burn up the league in his first year (1957-58) in the big time, he showed signs of greatness. In 1959-60 he won the N.H.L. scoring championship and was voted to the N.H.L. First All-Star team. In '60-61 he didn't have a good year by his standards. He scored but 31 goals and 25 assists. Last year, however he came back and won the scoring title and again was selected on the N.H.L. First All-Star squad. Thus in five seasons, Bobby has scored 151 goals, for an average of 30 per season. It wouldn't be too wild a prediction that if the wind is favorable for him, in time he'll be among the 500 goal scorers.

Bobby was born in Pointe Anne, Ont., on January 3, 1939. He stands 5'10" and weighs 195 lbs. He's married.

Leonard Melvin "Len" Lunde

CENTER

Shoots right 6', 185 lbs.

Born: CAMPBELL RIVER, ALTA.
NOVEMBER 13, 1936

Last Amateur Club:
EDMONTON OIL KINGS, JRS.

Len Lunde, a tall, blond Norwegian, spent three and one-half unsuccessful years trying to crash the Detroit Red Wing regular lineup and when the Detroit Top Brass gave up on him, the Hawks were ready to grab him, along with John McKenzie, in exchange for defenseman Doug Barkley of Calgary.

"We may have come up with a sleeper," said Tommy Ivan, Hawks' General Manager. "Perhaps the Wings expected too much of him. Maybe he was rushed along too rapidly. Maybe with a little more experience and confidence he'll produce for us."

Based on his first year in major league hockey, Lunde looked like a cinch for a long and successful stay in the N.H.L. He racked up 14 goals and 12 assists in his freshman campaign and was voted fifth in the "rookie-of-the-year" balloting. Perhaps he was the victim of the sophomore jinx, for he scored but 6 goals and 17 assists in his second semester. In 1960-61 he was shifted to right wing and tailed off to a 6-12-18 record. After 23 games last season, in which he saw very little action, his record dipped to 2-9-11 and the Wings then shipped him to Edmonton of the Western League where he wound up the season.

Lunde is a player who has all the tools — size, skill and a shot. When he is going right he can do tricks with the puck and it is because of the latter ability that he will again get a good try at center.

Lunde made his way up to the Red Wings through the Detroit farm system. He played all his early organized hockey in Edmonton, playing junior with the Oil Kings and then turned pro with the Flyers of the Western League.

Lunde was born in Campbell River, Alta., on November 13, 1936. He stands an even six feet and weighs 185 lbs. He's married and resides in Edmonton where he is a greenskeeper for a golf course.

Shoots left 5'10", 185 lbs.

Born: SYDNEY, N.S.
SEPTEMBER 27, 1935

Last Amateur Club:
TORONTO MARLBOROS, JRS.

Allister "Al" MacNeil was secured by the Black Hawks prior to the 1961-62 N.H.L. draft from the Montreal Canadiens for right wing Wayne Hicks and a bundle of cash.

The move was described by club officials as one to acquire a proven defenseman and insurance for a slightly aging defense corps.

MacNeil has been in pro hockey ever since 1955-56 when he signed with the Toronto Maple Leafs. A rough, tough type of player, Al spent the first five years in the shadow of more experienced rookies, traveling between Toronto and Rochester of the A.H.L.

In 1960-61 Montreal acquired his services, but shipped him off to Hull-Ottawa. Never dismayed, Al proceeded to set the E.P.H. League on its ear and by the season's end was voted the outstanding defenseman in the loop.

Montreal called him up last season, but Al found it difficult to crash the Canadiens over-stuffed defense corps.

Al doesn't pretend to be a smoothie, in fact he points out that he wasn't a good skater until he left his native Nova Scotia and headed for Toronto and the Marlboro juniors. He was a brash and unruly boy in those days and was looked upon as a policeman by his teammates.

The hard rock from Sydney still likes to hand it out when possible but under Hawks' tutoring can be exptected to get a thorough grounding in how best to suit his style to Hawks' demands.

Al was born in Sydney, Nova Scotia on September 27, 1935. He stands 5'10" and weighs 185 lbs.

Born: SAULT STE. MARIE, ONT.
AUGUST 17, 1939

Last Amateur Club:

Although christened Ronald, he's known to everybody as Chico. Regardless of wha he may be called or known as, the name Maki is sure to be heard for a long time in pro hockey ranks, based on his fine start.

In 1960-61, his first season as a pro, Maki was voted the rookie award of the American Hockey League as a member of the Buffalo Bisons, a Hawks farm team. He scored a total of 72 points — 30 goals and 42 assists — placing him 11th in the league scoring parade. At season's end the Hawks called on Chico for Stanley Cup duty and in 2 games conducted himself admirably.

Last season he started out with Buffalo and when the Hawks ran into injuries, was called upon again. Altogether he played in 15 N.H.L. contests and scored 4 goals and 10 assists. He finished out the season with the Bisons and was a big factor in their drive to the A.H.L. finals.

Maki is a product of the Hawks farm system in every sense of the term. He started out with the Simcoe, Ont. Gunners in Junior "B", then moved up to St. Catharines TeePees in the tough Ontario Junior "A" Association. During four seasons with the Teepees, Chico helped his team to the finals twice, and in his last season with them (1959-60), led them to the Junior Championship of Canada.

A veritable speed merchant on ice, Chico, when he is going right, can do tricks with the puck that makes fans sit up and take notice.

Chico was born in Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., on August 17, 1939. He stands 5'10" and weighs 165 lbs. He's married and makes his home in Simcoe where in the summer months he's employed by the C. P. Railway.

Last Amateur Club:

Alvin "Ab" McDonald was acquired by the Black Hawks from the Montreal Canadiens in the summer of 1960 in a nine-player swap which also included Reg Fleming, Cec Hoekstra and Bob Courcy. The latter two are now in the minors. The Hawks gave up Glen Skov, Terry Gray and a bundle of cash.

The first thing the Hawks did was to put Ab at left wing on the Scooter Line with Stan Mikita at center and Ken Wharram at right wing. Next to the Million Dollar Line they are the best scoring unit the Hawks have, with McDonald contributing his share of goals. He accounted for 17 tallies in 1960-61 and 22 markers last season. The latter mark was third highest among Hawk snipers.

McDonald, strangely enough, played his junior hockey for the St. Catharines Teepees under coach Rudy Pilous back in 1955-56. But Montreal snagged him and signed him to a pro contract. They farmed him out to Rochester of the A.H.L. where he spent the 1956-57 and '57-58 seasons.

The Canadiens called him up for the 1958-59 campaign, but due to lineup shakeups Ab found it difficult to nail down a regular berth. In 1959-60 he was again kept from regular playing and wasn't surprised when he was traded.

Normally a shy and silent type, Ab, since coming to the Hawks, has shrugged off an inferiority complex that plagued him with Montreal. He's a sound aggressive player, a very good checker and possessor of a hard, accurate shot.

Ab hails from Winnipeg, Man., where he was born on February 18, 1936. He stands 6'2" and weighs 190 lbs. He's married.

Shoots right 5'9", 170 lbs.

Born: HIGH RIVER, ALTA.
DECEMBER 12, 1937

Last Amateur Club:
ST. CATHARINES TEE PEES, JRS.

John McKenzie returns to the Black Hawks after a 4-year hiatus in the Detroit organization. The Hawks regained the scrappy little right winger when they got him back, along with Len Lunde, in a trade for defenseman Doug Barkley of Calgary.

Thus it's a homecoming for McKenzie. He grew up in the Hawks' farm system and consequently knows most of the Chicago players. He was a star junior player with the St. Catharines TeePees, a Hawk sponsored club which produced Elmer Vasko, Bobby Hull, Stan Mikita and Chico Maki. In his last season with the TeePees, John poured in 48 goals and 51 assists to lead the O.H.A. in scoring.

This display earned him a shot at the parent club the next fall. Surprisingly, he survived the training camp cuts and started the 1958-59 season with the Hawks. But after six games he was farmed out to Calgary of the Western League for more seasoning. He was recalled in December and finished out the campaign with the Hawks. That summer he was left off the Hawks' protected list and Detroit drafted him.

In his first season with the Wings, John elevated himself from a spare forward to number two right winger on the team.

A knee injury, plus other ailments affected his early play in the 1960-61 campaign and the Wings shipped him to Hershey of the A.H.L. where he wound up the year. — Last season he was Hershey's second highest scorer with 30 goals and 29 assists.

A short, stocky player, John is a rough-tough competitor who can dish it out as well as take it. Last season he spent 149 minutes in the penalty box, and the year before 84 minutes.

McKenzie was born in High River, Alta., on December 12, 1937. He stands 5'9" and weighs 170 lbs. He's single and makes his home in Nanton, Alta.

Born: EDMONTON, ALTA.
SEPTEMBER 16, 1934

Last Amateur Club:
EDMONTON OIL KINGS (Jrs.)
Home: EDMONTON, ALTA.

Jerry Melnyk came to the Black Hawks in 1961 in a deal which sent Ed Litzenberger to the Detroit Red Wings.

Truly a work-horse type of player, the stocky, dark-haired pivotman proved that the Hawks made no mistake in acquiring his services. He did everything that was asked of him, took a regular turn on the third line, worked on power plays and killed off penalties. Despite the multiple duties, he wound up with a respectable 21 points, made up of 5 goals and 16 assists.

Jerry broke into hockey with the Edmonton Oil Kings and after an outstanding junior career signed with the Detroit Red Wings who sent him to the Flyers of the Western League where he spent five seasons.

The Wings called on him during 1959-60, and for two seasons centered a line with Val Fonteyne and Al Johnson, a trio that became the people's choice. Regardless of the record, which showed but 19 goals and 26 assists for those two seasons, he demonstrated his smooth style of play time and time again. He became a hero in one Stanley Cup game when he scored Detroit's winning goal in overtime.

Jerry was born in Edmonton, Alta., on September 16, 1934. He stands 5'10" and weighs 175 lbs. He's married and makes his home in Edmonton.

Stanley "Stan" Mikita

Shoots right 5'9", 165 lbs.

Born: SOKOLCE, CZECH.
MAY 20, 1940

Last Amateur Club:
ST. CATHARINES TEE PEES, JRS.
Home: ST. CATHARINES, ONT.

Stan Mikita is one of the few European born hockey players to make the grade — and make it big — in the National Hockey League.

After just four yers in the big time, the Czech-born scrappy little youngster rates as one of the super-stars in the game.

Mikita, who centers for the Scooter Line, capped a brilliant regular season with an outstanding performance in the Stanley Cup playoffs last spring. The slick playmaker set two new playoff records in scoring. He racked up a total of 21 points (6 goals and 15 assists) to break the old mark of 20 points set by Detroit's Gordie Howe in 1955, and his 15 assists was one more than the old mark of 14 established by Boston's Fleming Mackell in 1958.

Although slightly built, Stan is endowed with an effortless shift and fine wrist shot. This helped him score 25 goals and 52 assists last season and tie with Howe for third place in the N.H.L. scoring parade. Stan's 52 assists also tied with teammate Red Hay for a new Black Hawks record in that department.

At one time Mikita felt he had to trade punches with more muscular guys in order to gain a reputation. As a result he picked up a lot of penalties — 119 minutes in his freshman year and 100 minutes in his second semester. Last season he controlled his pugnaciousness and the results showed in his scoring.

In a sense, though, Mikita's entire life has been a battle for respect. Born in Czechoslovakia and when but 8 years old he was adopted by his uncle Joe Mikita and brought to Canada. Stan soon learned what it meant to be an "outsider" when he attended school in St. Catharines, Ont. But sport was the analgesic element. Being a fine soccer player, Stan made the team. Came winter and he quickly adopted himself to hockey. Then followed a rapid rise through the TeePees, juniors, and then the Hawks.

Stan was born in Sokolce, Czechoslovakia on May 20, 1940. He stands 5'9" and weighs 165 lbs. He's single.

Born: HAMILTON, ONT.

Home: MOUNT HOPE, ONT.

Ron Murphy, the free-wheeling, fast-skating Irishman was acquired by the Black Hawks at the start of the 1957-58 season from the New York Rangers in a swap for Hank Ciesla.

The big left winger has had his ups and downs since turning pro with the Rangers back in 1952-53. He played in only 15 games that year and scored 3 goals and one assist. The following season he started out like a prairie fire only to be knocked out of action after 27 games. He became involved in a stick-swinging duel with Montreal's Bernie Geoffrion in which both were suspended. When league prexy, C. S. Campbell lifted the suspensions Ron was shipped to Saskatoon in the Western League.

Ron was recalled by the Rangers in 1954-55 and stuck around until the middle of the 1956-57 campaign when he was shipped to Providence, a victim of coach Phil Watson's purge.

Ron had his best years with the Hawks, reaching peak goal production in 1960-61 when he registered 21 markers.

Last season Murphy ran into a series of injuries and his goal output dropped to 12 tallies. He was sidelined for the entire playoff series, at a time when the Hawks could have used his speed and skill.

Murphy seldom gains notice during the first couple of months of the season, seeming almost content to patrol his wing, diligently tying up his assigned opponent. Then, as the season wears on and the pressure mounts, Ron begins to make his presence felt.

Ron was born in Hamilton, Ont., on April 10, 1933. He stands 5' 11" and weighs 185 lbs. He's married and makes his home in Mount Hope, Ont.

Eric Paul "Nester" Nesterenko

Shoots right 6'1", 185 lbs.
Born: FLIN FLON, MAN.
OCTOBER 31, 1933
Last Amateur Club:
TORONTO MARLBOROS JRS.
Home: TORONTO, ONT.

Eric "Elbows" Nesterenko has been one of hockey's enigmas. He's a strange man, a loner, a man with ideas of his own. He has played the game that way, and the Hawks have gone along with him and it's quite clear now that their patience has been rewarded.

The rangy right-winger spent three frustrating seasons with the Toronto Maple Leafs, who, at that time, were looking for a goal-scorer and leader. Eric simply didn't possess that kind of talent and the Leafs finally gave up on him and shipped him to Winnipeg of the Western League. Hawk scouts watched him and were convinced he still had plenty of good hockey left in him.

When the Leafs failed to protect him in the 1956 N.H.L. draft the Hawks stepped in and claimed him for the $15,000 price tag.

Nester immediately rewarded the Hawks with a 20-goal season. Then followed two semesters when he collected 16 and 13 goals. But in both of these campaigns Eric commuted between his home base, London, Ont., where he attended Western Ontario University and wherever the Hawks wre playing. The student-Hawks era ended in 1960-61 and Nester came through with 19 goals for the year.

Last season he managed but 15 goals, but Nester's primary duties were to shadow the big guns of the opposition. He pursued them both with the insistence of a process server. Nobody in the league did a more thorough job of extracting the value out of his check than he did. — More important, Nester shared penalty-killing duties with Reg Fleming and Bob Turner, and this trio rated tops in that department.

Yes, a great deal has been said about the enigmatic Eric since he scored two spectacular goals in his big league debut and was hailed as another Gordie Howe and Jean Beliveau. Some of it has been muttered by coaches and players alike, who have found his profound thinking as hard to follow as his goalward rushes.

Pierre Paul "Pete" Pilote

Shoots left 5'10", 165 lbs.

Born: KENOGAMI, QUE.
DECEMBER 11, 1931

Last Amateur Club:
ST. CATHARINES TEE PEES, JRS.
Home: FORT ERIE, ONT.

Pierre Pilote, or the "Bantam Bouncer" as he is referred to by the press, is the lightest of all N.H.L. defensemen. Yet, he makes up for this disadvantage with plenty of "guts and go."

Despite the weigh-in figures, Pilote is noted as a hitter. In fact the scrappy French-Canadian captured the dubious honor of penalty leader in 1960-61 with 165 minutes in the box. He has averaged better than 100 minutes in the cooler per season.

Pilote is also one of the most durable defensemen in the league. He ran up a string of 376 consecutive games played before being sidelined with an injury last season. It kept him on the shelf 11 games.

Pilote overcomes the weight disadvantage in body checking by letting the puck carrier provide the momentum for a stiff check while he merely slides out a tricky hip, absorbing little of the impact.

"Pete" and big Elmer Vasko form one of the oldest but most effective defense combinations ever seen in the N.H.L. They are the "long and short of it." Vasko at 6'3" and 210 bls. is easily the biggest rearguard. Pilote, a diminutive 5'10" and 165 lbs., is easily the smallest.

Pilote played three and one-half seasons with Buffalo Bisons of the A.H.L. before coming to the Hawks in 1955-56. In 1959-60 he established a new Hawks record for most points by a defenseman in one season when he collected 45 points, 10 more than the old mark set by Bill Gadsby back in 1949-50.

For the past two seasons Pilote was voted on the N.H.L.'s Second All-Star Team.

Pilote was born in Kenogami, Que., on December 11, 1931. He's married and makes his home in Fort Erie, Ont. During the off-season he owns and operates a launderette in St. Catharines, Ont.

Robert George "Bob" Turner

Shoots left 6', 174 lbs.

Born: REGINA, SASK.
JANUARY 31, 1934

Last Amateur Club:
REGINA PATS JRS.

Bob Turner, one of the most versatile players in the National Hockey League, was secured by the Black Hawks from the Montreal Canadiens in the summer of 1961 for a bundle of cash plus minor leaguer Fred Hilts.

As a player Turner is big league all the way. He never stops trying and gives it everything he has in every game.

Bob, whose high hairline belies his mere 28 years, has had to be able to handle tough jobs, because he's never been able to gain steady employment at one post. Although he's listed as a defenseman, he can also play forward, and this dual capacity has made him one of the best penalty-killers in the N.H.L.

Last season, Bob turned out to be a scoring threat as he registered 8 goals, most of them coming when his team was a man shorthanded. It was his biggest goal-output since coming into the N.H.L. back in '56-57.

Turner was spotted playing for the Regina Pats by Montreal scouts who signed him to a pro contract in 1954-55. After a season and a half with Shawinigan of the Quebec league he was called up to the Canadiens mid-way through the 1955-56 campaign.

A second year jinx hit Bob below the belt, and besides, he couldn't break into the star-studded Canadiens lineup. Consequently he was shipped to Rochester of the A.H.L., where he gained his confidence and fought his way back to the N.H.L. after only 8 games in the American League.

Bob was born in Regina, Sask., on January 31, 1934. He stands an even six feet tall and weighs 174 lbs. He's married and makes his summer home in Regina.

Elmer "Moose" Vasko

Shoots left 6'3", 210 lbs.

Born: DUPARQUET, QUE.
DECEMBER 11, 1935

Last Amateur Club:
ST. CATHARINES TEE PEES, JRS.
Home: ST. CATHARINES, ONT.

Elmer "Moose" Vasko, king-sized defenseman, has developed into one of the most colorful players in the game.

At 6'3" and 210 lbs, Vasko is the biggest player in the National Hockey League. Moose has proved that he's not only large, fast and skilful as a defenseman, but he has that "something extra" that makes him invaluable to the Hawks. His headlong rushes down the ice, reminiscent of a moose ripping through the underbrush, have a habit of demoralizing the opposition, as well as lifting the fans out of their seats.

Perhaps because of his size and strength, opponents are wary of tangling with Vasko, which explains the fact he has drawn only 361 minutes in penalties in six full seasons of N.H.L. play, one of the lowest totals in the league for a defenseman.

Vasko is a graduate of the Black Hawks farm system. He helped St. Catharines TeePees win the Memorial Cup, emblematic of the Junior Championship of Canada. He had a four-game try-out with Buffalo Bisons of the A.H.L. in 1955-56 before moving up to the Hawks the following season. It wasn't easy for Moose during the first three seasons in the big time because he had to wear a special shoulder harness to protect an old injury and yet, despite the handicap, he not only thrived but became the toast of the N.H.L. fans who liked his dash and spirit. He has undergone surgery to correct the chronic injury and his play improved vastly.

The hulking, brush-cut blond is teamed with diminutive Pierre Pilote (5'10" and 165 lbs.) to form one of the oddest, yet most effective defense combinations. Putting it simply, they are the "long and short of it" among N.H.L. rearguards.

Vasko was born in Duparquet, Quebec, on December 11, 1933. He's married and makes his summer home in St. Catharines, Ont.

Kenneth Malcolm "Ken" Wharram

Shoots right 5'9", 155 lbs.

Born: FERRIS, ONT.
JULY 2, 1933

Last Amateur Club:
GALT JRS.

Home: NORTH BAY, ONT.

Two superlatives can be applied aptly to diminutive Ken Wharram — he's not only one of the smallest performers in the National Hockey League, but also one of the gamest.

Standing a mere 5'9" and weighing but 155 lbs., Wharram certainly has no excess brawn at his call, but has to rely on his speed and finesse for success against much bigger opponents.

After being kicked around the minor leagues for 5 years, Ken, after his third trip to a Hawk training camp, finally made the grade.

Wharram had been in the Chicago organization since 1949. While a member of the Galt juniors he received a one-game tryout with the Hawks in the spring of 1952. Then followed a 29-game stint in the '53-54 season. He had another "look-see" in 1955-56, but that was all.

This may have been enough to dishearten anyone, but not Wharram. He took the breaks in stride and kept on trying. Persistence paid off, for he got another chance in 1958-59 and he was ready for the challenge. While he scored only 10 goals that season, his spirit and determination were a deciding factor in keeping him with the team.

However, it took even more fight for Wharram to overcome some of the injuries which plagued him. He suffered two jaw fractures. He broke his right jaw in February 1959, then an identical break shelved him again in 1960. Last season he suffered a severe groin injury and was sidelined for 8 games.

Despite it all, Ken is a solid fixture with the Hawks' Scooter Line, which has Stan Mikita at center and Ab McDonald at left wing.

Ken had four outstanding seasons with Buffalo Bisons of the A.H.L., rolling up a total of 119 goals and 187 assists.

Ken was born in Ferris, Ont., on July 2, 1933. He's married.

Murray Hall

CENTER

Shoots right 5'11", 163 lbs.

Born: KIRKLAND LAKE, ONT.
NOVEMBER 24, 1940

Last Amateur Club:
ST. CATHARINES TEE PEES, JRS.

Murray Hall, no relation to goalie Glenn Hall, is another product of the Black Hawks' farm system. The slender right wing and center started playing amateur hockey for the Dixie Beehives in junior "B" in 1957-58. He moved up to the St. Catharines TeePees in junior "A" in 1959-60 and helped them win the junior Championship of Canada. He played in only 40 games the following season, yet racked up a total of 68 points, made up of 29 goals and 39 assists.

Murray was invited to the Hawks training camp last fall and in the first seven exhibition games scored 8 goals and 5 assists. Because of this outstanding performance he was signed to a pro contract. The Hawks' brass felt that he needed a little more seasoning and sent him to Buffalo where he scored 20 goals and 21 assists in 68 games. He performed briefly for the Hawks in two regular season games.

Denis DeJordy

Shoots left 5'9", 160 lbs.

Born: ST. HYACINTHE, QUE.
NOVEMBER 12, 1938

Denis DeJordy, 24, is considered the most brilliant and colorful young goaltender outside the N.H.L. A product of the Black Hawks farm system, DeJordy graduated from the St. Catharines TeePees Jrs. and played his first pro hockey with Sault Ste. Marie, of the Eastern League where he won the rookie award in 1959-60. For the past two seasons he performed for the Buffalo Bisons of the American League and helped them to the playoffs. He is the heir-apparent to the Black Hawks throne when Glenn Hall hangs up his gear.

How Hull Did It . . .

Bobby Hull is the third man in National Hockey League history to score 50 goals in a season. He reached this outstanding feat during the 70-game schedule of the 1961-62 N.H.L. season.

Maurice "Rocket" Richard, the retired Montreal Canadiens star, scored his 50 goals in a 50-game schedule in 1944-45.

Canadiens' Bernie "Boom Boom" Geoffrion repeated the feat in a 70-game N.H.L. schedule in 1960-61.

In reaching the 50-goal pinnacle, Hull found the Boston Bruins the most victimized team.

The 23-year-year-old Blond Bomber scored 14 goals against three Boston netminders — seven against Bruce Gamble, six against Don Head and one against Ed Chadwick.

The most victimized individual was Jacques Plante of Montreal Canadiens, the winner of the Vezina Trophy which is awarded to the least-scored upon goaltender. Plante allowed Hull 10 goals.

Hull also scored 10 goals against both New York Rangers and Detroit Red Wings. Against New York he beat Lorne "Gump" Worsley nine times and Marcel Paille once. Against Detroit he got seven goals against Terry Sawchuk and three against Hank Bassen.

Here is a rundown of Hull's scoring feat:
